

North Carolina Seafood Availability

SUSTAINABLE FISHERIES

Sustainable harvests mean we will enjoy seafood today and in the future. North Carolina fisheries listed here are managed for long-term viability. This chart is based on past landings. Species availability is subject to changing regulations and environmental conditions.

For more information on:

- N.C. marine fisheries stock status, www.ncdmf.net/stocks
- U.S. sustainable fisheries efforts, www.fishwatch.noaa.gov
- North Carolina seafood markets, www.nc-seafood.org
- Local seafood availability, www.ncseagrant.org/seafood

North Carolina Sea Grant • www.ncseagrant.org • Raleigh, 919/515-2454; Morehead City, 252/222-6337 • UNC-SG-10-09
 Compiled by Stephanie McInerney, N.C. Division of Marine Fisheries, and Barry Nash, North Carolina Sea Grant • Illustrations by John Norton